

Morton Trentside Primary School

Music Curriculum

INTENT

At Morton Trentside Primary, we believe in the power of Music. We understand that it can help us to be happier and more creative, to express ourselves and work as part of a team. We know that it can make us feel more confident, take pride in what we do and improve our self-esteem.

Our aim is to provide a music curriculum, which will enable each child to reach their full potential in music, encouraging children to enjoy singing, listening, composing and performing, and providing all children with a variety of opportunities to take part in musical experiences both in school and further afield.

'Music can change the world' - Beethoven

'Music is life itself' - Louis Armstrong

'Without music, life would be a mistake' - Friedrich Nietzsche

Music Overview

Our curriculum is supported by the Charanga Music Scheme and the Lincolnshire Music Service.

Care

The theme of many of our units demonstrates our core value of care.

Inspire

Every year group in the school receives whole class instrument tuition of a different instrument to inspire children.

Thrive

We use music throughout the day to show children the role that music has in well-being in addition to our planned units of work. This includes class playlists and music for mindfulness.

Achieve

Our curriculum has been arranged so that subject knowledge and disciplinary knowledge can be built upon year on year in order that children achieve well in music.
